Sylvia Sotuyo, Charles E. Edwards Exchange Promises

Sylvia Sotuyo and Charles E. Edwards exchanged wedding vows Sept. 13 in an evening ceremony at the Calvary Community Church in Torrance.

The Rev. Donald E. Flentge conducted the double ring ceremony before an arch of climbing vines of white roses and wedding bells.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso D. Sotuyo, 20325 S. New Hampshire Ave.; parents of the benedict are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards of San Antonio, Texas.

Soft candlelight flooded the altar area with baskets of white carnations and mums nearby.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length tiered gown of white lace over net with a high neckline, full length sleeves and a shoulder length veil. She carried a white orchid and carnations with long ribbon streamers.

Lucy Sotuyo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a dress of beige lace. She carried pink carnations.

Weldon E. Thompson assisted as best man.

The couple cut a three-tiered wedding cake at the reception held later at the home of the bride's parents.
